

Resilience and Smart City Seoul

Cheonggyecheon Museum

The museum details the history of Cheonggyecheon, the restoration project, and the future roles that Cheonggyecheon will play as Seoul makes a leap to become an environmentally-friendly resilient city.

Seoul Sewerage Science Museum

Located at the site of Korea's first sewage disposal plant, the site consist of water reclamation centre, and an interactive smart exhibition that displays the history, technology, and future of domestic and overseas sewerage.