

Does Public-Private-People Collaboration Yield the Best Social Innovations?

Hany Fam, EVP Mastercard

Pioneering a new model of urban development, based on our collective superpower!

No city should start on anything, anywhere other than where the last city ended!

Imagine City Possible...

Co-developing, piloting, and scaling urban solutions through a new model of private-public-civic collaboration.

By working together, we can make cities more inclusive, more responsive and more sustainable.
